CHAUTAUQUA OPENS

GOOD CROWD AT OPENING PROGRAM THIS AFTERNOON.

PVT. LOVELL'S STORY

Experiences in German Prison Camps Were Related—Dr. Chas. E. Barker Will Speak Tonight.

With a fair sized crowd at the opening program of the Chautauqua this afternoon and with a realization that the talent this year is unexcelled for every day of the course, increased interest is being taken and it is predicted that the largest crowds that have ever attended a Chautauqua will be recorded during the week.

The opening exercises and announcements at 2:30 o'clock were followed with an entertainment by Jess Pugh, who is a highly versatile person, brimming over with comedy, and is a crackerjack interpretative reader, character delineator. As a baritone soloist, he also pleased his audience. Mr. Pugh will also preface this evening's program with a varied entertainment.

Private Lovell, of the Canadian Expeditionary Forces, gave a thrilling recital of trench life and related experiences in connection with his capture by the Germans, where he spent two years at hard labor and in solitary confinement before he finally escaped. Private Lovell secured his discharge from the army on account of physical disabilities brought on by prison life. He is 23 years old, and while he made no attempt at oratory, he told a tale of gripping interest.

The lecture and demonstration to be given this evening by Dr. Charles E. Barker on "How to Live One Hundred Years," will be a complete change from everything else on the program, and different from anything you have ever seen or heard.

One of the very interesting features of Dr. Barker's lecture is the set of demonstrations he gives while on the platform. Most of these are easily remembered and can be adopted by those who hear him to their very great profit. His physical exercises, rules of diet and health suggestions are time tried and sensible, and will be a boon to all who take advantage of them.

The interest aroused by this lecture is demonstrated by the great number of people who crowd about the platform at the conclusion of the address to get acquainted with the doctor and ask him questions. As a rule he is only about half way through with his work when he closes his public speech. The people won't let him go.

CAN SELL OR BUYSEED WHEAT

There Is no Restriction on Sale or Purchase of Seed Wheat and no Permit Is Required.

I still get a great many questions about the rules of the food administration regarding seed wheat, and will answer them here again, and I hope that every one interested and all the banks in the county will cut this out and hang it up for reference.

The government wants everybody to sow wheat who possibly can, and they want you to be careful to sow nothing but good wheat of good weight and grade, which will result in production of more wheat and more money to you, but you may buy your wheat anywhere you please, and anyone having wheat for sale may sell it for seed purposes, or you may use your own wheat for seed purposes, and no permit is required from me or anybody else. But let me again urge you to be careful in the selection, and use none but good, heavy wheat of an even grade.

MR. FLYNN TO WASHINGTON

Kansas City Attorney Secures Splendid Government Appointment. Will Take Family to Capital.

Frank Flynn, of Kansas City, a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Sturm, of this city, has recently been appointed to a government position at Washington, D. C., and took up his work there last week. Mrs. Flynn and daughter, who have been visiting the Sturms, have returned to Kansas City, and will go to Washington in a few weeks.

Mr. Flynn has been special attorney for the Kansas City welfare board for the past two years.

THREE GRANDSONS IN ARMY

Phillip, Elston and Lyman Parcher, Former Maryville Boys in U. S. Army and Navy Service.

Elston Parcher, a grandson of Mrs. Mary Parcher, and a former Maryville lad, has recently enlisted in the navy and is the third grandson of Mrs. Parcher to be in army service. Elston is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parcher, now living at Portland, Ore., and he and his brother, Lyman, are both in the navy service, stationed at San Francisco for the present. Another grandson, Phillip Parcher, a son of Mrs. Edna Parcher, now living at The Dalles, Ore., is in training at El Paso, Texas. The latter was employed as head of the manual training department of The Dalles High School at the time of his enlistment.

LLOYD BOOHERSERIOUSLY ILL

Young Savannah Attorney, Son of Hon. C. F. Booher, Very Low, Following Operation at St. Joseph.

Lloyd Booher, a leading young attorney of Savannah, and oldest son of Hon. C. F. Booher, is critically ill at a hospital in St. Joseph. He has been suffering for some time with an affection of the gall bladder, and was compelled to undergo an operation for its removal. His condition is reported exceeding dangerous. His father has cancelled all engagements and will not attempt any further campaign, but will remain at his son's bedside, pending the outcome of the operation.

II HAVE ENROLLED

NODAWAY COUNTY'S NURSE QUOTA BEING RAPIDLY FILLED.

SEVEN ENLISTED TODAY

Equally Important With Releasing Men for Service Is Releasing Nurses for Work at Front.

With a call by the Red Cross for fifteen young women for the Nurses' Student Reserve, Nodaway County's quota will be filled almost before the enrollment is announced. With four young women having enrolled on the opening day of the registration, today finds seven others anxious to offer their services to the government for the care of sick and wounded soldiers and sailors. Those who enrolled today were:

Alberta Hahn, 1039 North Dewey, Maryville.

Stella Marie McCann, Ravenwood.

Gladys Pennington, Hopkins.

Ula E. Strader, 214 South Mulberry, Maryville.

Goldie Pope, 315 South Buchanan, Maryville.

Jessie Fisher, R. F. D. No. 2, Maryville.

Mrs. Mary Lydia Clardy, Elmo, Mo.

The enrollment will continue until August 11 at Red Cross headquarters, on West Third street. While fifteen has been set as Nodaway County's quota, application and enrollments will be received from all who desire to enlist. Those in the preferred classes will be called first to service following the training course, but it is expected that all who enroll will be given an opportunity to enter training.

Many women think it the best proof of their morale to release men for the front. It has not yet occurred to a sufficient number of women that equally important is the releasing of nurses who can save men at the front. For this reason the government is calling for twenty-five thousand women between 19 and 35 to join the United States Student Nurse Reserve.

Surely there will be enough women who can see the merit of service unattended by publicity to fill the training schools.

TO CONSERVE EGG SUPPLY

Federal Agent Here Today to Confer With Dealers and Producers on Proper Handling of Product

In an effort to familiarize poultry and egg dealers and producers with the need for better egg production, John M. Borders, of the United States Department of Agriculture, food research laboratory, is here today conferring with dealers from this and surrounding towns. It is estimated that the annual loss in Missouri from bad eggs is five million dollars. The government regulations concerning the candling of eggs is getting results in securing a better class of eggs and the waste is being cut down, according to Mr. Borders, but there is still room for improvement.

The proper handling of eggs, both by the producer and dealer, has been the aim of the government in the effort to conserve the food supply of the nation, and egg and poultry experts are visiting all sections of the state. Mr. Borders says he is meeting with hearty co-operation everywhere, and that this section is fast getting up to the standard desired by the government.

FEAR OPEN BREAK

RUSSIAN BOLSHEVIKI MAY FORCE SPLIT WITH ALLIES.

Reported That Moscow Authorities Had Ordered That Their Sailing Be Prevented—Seeks Details.

Washington, July 31.—That an open break between the Bolshevik government in Russia and the allied governments may be forced at any moment by the attitude of the former, was admitted here today. For the present every possible measure is being taken to prevent it, however, the attitude of the Lenine-Trotzky control is such that officials say it is well to be prepared for the worst. In this connection the state department is making all possible efforts to secure the exact details concerning the departure of Ambassador Francis and other diplomats from Vologda to Lapland.

Kandalaska, Russian Lapland, July 31.—The allied embassies, which recently left Vologda for Archangel, were not permitted to remain in Archangel and have arrived in Kandalaska.

The embassies left Vologda July 25, in response to a message of M. Tchitcherin, Bolshevik foreign minister declaring that they were in great danger, and that a bombardment of Vologda was threatened for the next day. He urged the embassies to come to Moscow, but the ambassadors decided to proceed to Archangel, where they

212 TODAY'S CASUALTY LIST

194 in the Army and 18 in the Marines. Forty Were Killed in Action, 42 Died of Wounds.

Washington, July 31.—One hundred and ninety-four casualties were in the list announced by the War Department today. Thirty-six were killed in action, forty died of wounds, six from disease, one from airplane accident, five from accidents from other causes, sixty-seven were severely wounded, fifteen were wounded, degree undetermined, and twenty-four were missing in action.

In the marines eighteen casualties were announced. Four were killed in action, two died of wounds and twelve were seriously injured.

MISS HATTIE PIERCE INJURED

Head of Red CrossKnitting Division Was Severely Hurt in Fall Monday Afternoon.

Miss Hattie Pierce was severely hurt Monday afternoon when she fell at the Red Cross rooms and suffered a sprained wrist and hip and other injuries.

Miss Pierce was packing some knitted garments and in order to press them down was standing on the lid of the box. When she went to step off, her skirt caught on the box and threw her forward on the cement floor. Miss Pierce has been chairman of the knitting department of the Red Cross since its organization.

It will be several weeks before she will be entirely recovered.

Mrs. Donald Cady left Monday for her home at Des Moines, Ia., after a two weeks' visit in this city with her mother, Mrs. Martha Denny.

A FIGHT TO THE DEATH SAYS MARCH

STRUGGLE ON WESTERN FRONT IS BATTLE TO DESTROY BY ALLIES AND HUNS.

ALLIES USE ARTILLERY TO FORCE GERMANS BACK

With Both Sides Throwing in Reserves Gen. Pershing Assigns the Rainbow Division to the Line at Fere-en-Tardenois.

London, July 31.—German resistance on the Aisne-Marne front has stiffened and a heavy battle is expected all along the line of the present positions. Both sides are strongly reacting, and the allies are rushing up heavy artillery to force the Germans back to the Vesle River, where they are expected to make a new stand.

Washington, July 31.—All objectives of the Germans and the hopes of the allies when they started their winning counter offensive have been cast aside and the struggle now in progress on the western front has resolved itself into a battle to destroy each other. According to General March, chief of staff, is now a battle to the death, with the Germans bringing into action all their available reserves.

The United States forces have now been reinforced by throwing into action the Rainbow Division, which is now fighting to the eastward of Fereen-Tardenois. The maximum retirement of the Germans since last Saturday, according to General March, has been about fourteen miles on a center. When the present fighting began the Soissons-Reims circle, along which the troops were heavily engaged, was about seventy-four miles; today it is less than fifty miles. These figures tell the story of the wonderful work which the United States and their allies have done in checking the Germans.

TO SHOW CALDWELL ANIMALS

FAIR

President Frank J. Roelofson, of the Nodaway County Fair Association said today in speaking of the live stock exhibits at the coming fall event that fair visitors would see one of the best displays of live stock ever brought to the fair. Among other exhibitors it is announced that show animals from the widely known Caldwell herd of Aberdeen-Angus will be on exhibition at the fair this fall. The interesting Scotch Highlanders owned by the Caldwells will be shown along with other prize winners from the big herd. The Caldwell animals will not be in competition for purses or premiums but will be for exhibition only. This is the first time in recent years that Messrs. Caldwell have found it convenient to show their animals at the Nodaway fair, their string of show animals always being off on a round of the big fair circuits.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for nomination as presiding judge, subject to the action of the Democratic primary August 6, 1918.

S. H. WILLIAMS.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE.

I hereby announce myself as a Democratic candidate for the nomination for presiding judge of the County Court, subject to the decision of voters at the primary to be held August 6 1918. W. M. BLACKFORD.

Some one has reported the discovery of a safety pin three thousand years old. This indicates at least that infants have not been so fickle in their devotion to styles as the grown-ups.

The past three months have wrought a great change in the war situation. The Allied position is vastly stronger than it was when the Huns made their drive last March. We may not yet fix the day of victory, but the danger of defeat has passed.

INCOMPETENT TESTIMONY.

Hon. William E. Spratt, of St. Joseph, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district, has industriously circulated a rather interesting circular made up from various newspaper notices. The notices are, of course, more or less complimentary, are intended to impress the reader with his fitness for the high office he seeks, and, when properly understood, make very pleasant reading these hot days.

A glance at the circular reveals a curious mixture of testimony from a Democratic standpoint. There are four notices from the Dearborn Democrat of Platte County. The wife of the editor of the Dearborn Democrat was an applicant for a post office and when one of her competitors was appointed, he suffered a severe case of Congressional astigmatism from which he has never recovered.

There is one notice credited to Pickering in this county. As no birth announcement has been received for any newspaper in Pickering, we will assume that this is a mistake.

There are two notices from the St. Joseph Gazette, one each from the Kansas City Star, the Maryville Tribune, the Mound City News-Jeffersonian, the Hopkins Journal and the Elmo Register, all of whom are as fond of the Democratic party as satan is of holy water. It is pleasant, of course, for a Democratic candidate, seeking a party nomination, to have the temporary approval of the Republican oracles of the district and, since Mr. Spratt placed his announcement generously in Republican and independent newspapers, it would have been the basest of ingratitude had they not given him a pleasant notice when he came to town. This evidences a reciprocal spirit that is altogether commendable. However, if Mr. Spratt would have a favorable verdict from a jury of Democrats, he should trot out a different set of witnesses from the above. Such testimony is wholly incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. It might go in St. Joseph, but the voters in old Nodaway can see through a screen.

Forum-ettes

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the candidates for whom they have promised to vote.

"Keep Cool and Give the Kaiser Hell," is the admonition of an advertiser in the Bartlesville (Okla.) Enterprise. We'll giv'em hell, all right, but we can hardly be expected to keep cool about it.

And then again, things are not always what they seem. The woman who attends the most lectures on food conservation is not always the same one who puts up 250 jars of fruit products.

Government experts to the contrary notwithstanding, we hold to the opinion that fried chicken in the summer time lays it all over fried chicken canned for winter use. And just think of what a calamity it would be in these times for a miscue to happen that would result in spoiling a whole can of fried chicken.

Every time it rains the newspaper nowadays refer to it as "million dollar rains." Considering what a million dollars will buy these times, the quill pushers have been having some good sized dews in their neighborhoods.

Confession: I confess that while I am rated as a good-natured fellow, I sometimes have a grouch, but I don't take it out on someone else. I just go into a room and shut the door and cuss it out to myself. It's funny, when you feel that way.

Neil Somerville says that if a speedometer had been attached to his anatomy during the W. S. S. drive it probably would show that he had walked 4,915.7 miles.

A certain man who comes to this office to boast about his war garden, is hereby notified that this office knows his wife is a hard working woman, and that she and the children have made the garden, while he loafed down town.

The war is getting pretty close to home. A Maryville young man reports he has found a "cootie" on his pink pajamas.

"Education and refinement, coupled with determination, can accomplish everything," a Chicago preacher told his congregation last Sunday. Maybe so, but it can't keep a fat man from snoring in his sleep.

ENGAGEMENT RINGS AND WAR

Demand on Platinum Supply Has Sent Price Sky High—Is Used in a Multitude of Ways.

The engaged girl flashed her ring. "But just how do they use platinum in the war?" she asked.

A good many girls are asking that question these days. They hear of the war demands on the platinum supply. They know that the war has sent the price sky high. Platinum rings are getting as scarce as hen's teeth. Just why?

The answer is that our troops do not shoot it from their guns, but they must have it to fire them. Every branch of the service, from the artillery to the signal corps, from the submarines to the hospitals, depends upon this white metal for some part of its efficiency.

Electrical equipment, after munitions, calls for the greatest amount of platinum. Even in prewar days, this demand was tremendous. All telephone and telegraph instruments, all magnetos, have platinum contacts.

Now the army and navy are using extensive signaling apparatus. They need platinum for field telephone, wireless and submarine signaling systems. And in building aeroplanes, "the eyes of the army," platinum is essential.

Electric light bulbs, so common today, use a considerable amount of it. The "leading in" wires, which pierce the glass, must be of a metal which will not expand with heat.

In our military hospitals and war surgery, the lives of men depend on the use of instruments, such as cautery tips, which are made of platinum. For the X-ray tubes, which find the bullets and shrapnel in wounds, we need it.

With all this use of platinum at the front, that behind the lines must also increase. Research and experimental laboratories redouble their work, which requires instruments of platinum.

But the supply is small.

Our chief source has been the Russian mines. They are now under German control. We are securing our present stock from Colombia. But Colombia's annual output is 30,000 ounces, while our normal prewar consumption was 65,000 ounces.

The war industries board is trying to meet the deficiency by diverting platinum from unnecessary uses to war industries. It commandeers such supplies wherever it can find them, to turn over to the war workers. A new typewritten list of platinum to be commandeered measures some two yards in length.

While the government works to secure platinum for the war, a volunteer organization has started a campaign to eliminate the use of it in jewelry. This is the women's national league for the conservation of platinum.

Only seventy-five years ago this metal was discovered. Today chemists, engineers, and a host of others have added their voices to the cry. They declare that platinum will win the war.

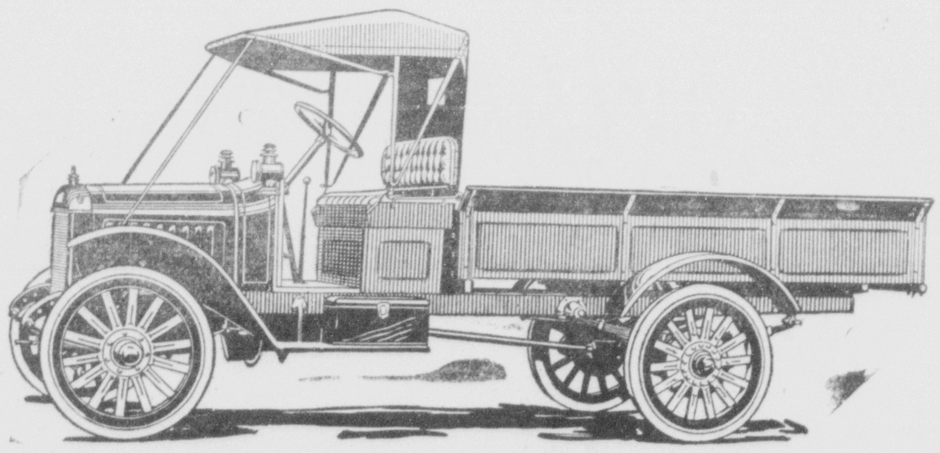
THE REPUBLIC Internal Gear Drive TRUCK
The Farmers Best "Hired Man"



Republic Farm Trucks are helping to solve the labor shortage in all parts of the United States. With its powerful truck motor, truck transmission, truck axles, truck springs, the Republic is built for the hardest kind of farm work. It does all your hauling to and from the fields. Makes quick trips to and from town when every hour is precious. No makeshift can give you the Republic's sturdy, dependable service day after day, year after year. No ordinary construction can deliver the power with the fuel economy of the Republic-Torbensen Internal Gear Drive. The Republic is one of the most money-saving investments farmers are making. Over 30,000 in use.

SEVEN MODELS—A TRUCK FOR EVERY FARM NEED.

Republic Special ¾-ton, 128-inch wheel base; Republic Dispatch for deliery purpose; 1-ton with bow top and stake or express body; 1½ ton, 2-ton, 3½-ton Dreadnought; 5-ton Thoroughbred.

We can furnish Republic trucks with any kind of Special Bodies for farm use.

Internal gear drive applied between hub and rim of road wheels insures greatest leverage.

The cut below illustrates the Republic-Torbensen Internal Gear Drive used in Republic Trucks. A section of the rear axle construction, and one of the road wheels are shown. In front of the differential you see the massive drop-forged I-beam dead axle which which carries the entire load and takes care of the side sway and road shock. Back of this is the nickel steel drive shaft. Its sole work is to drive the truck—to move the load. The pinion on the end of the drive shaft is meshed in the internal gear on each rear road wheel, between the hub and the rim, insuring the greatest leverage, more power, more work on less fuel.

Every buyer gets a Gold Bond Guarantee covering the I-Beam Axle and Spindles for the life of the truck, and the internal gears for two years.

CHANGE IN SUGAR RATIONING

Beginning Tomorrow But Two Pounds Per Month Per Person May Be Purchased for Consumption.

On August 1 the sugar ration will be cut from three pounds per person per month to two pounds per person per month, and every individual is earnestly requested to reduce their consumption to not more than two pounds per month, and dealers are urged to do all in their power to hold every consumer down to this limit.

All hotels, restaurants and public eating places are also required to limit their sugar consumption to two pounds per person per month for all purposes, which means that two pounds of sugar will be all that they will be permitted to use for every ninety meals served.

Farmers and Threshers, Read.

I find that there is some threshing being done out of the stack the last few days, and I wish to call your attention to the fact that it is bad practice to thresh from the stack while the grain is in the sweat, and that on account of the straw being very tough, it is impossible to get all of the wheat, and I would urge you to be very cautious about this and not try to thresh your wheat out of the stack until it has gone through the sweat.

If you will do this, you will get more wheat and a much better color and probably get a better grade and price.

THURSDAY—Special Paralta Plays—J. Warren Kerrigan, in "A MAN'S MAN," magnificient production of a smashing big romantic photo-melodrama. "A MAN'S MAN." His friends find security in the clasp of his hands. The woman of his choice yearns for their gentle caress. His enemies quail when his mounting anger forges those hands into cudgels of iron. But there is one to whom those strong hands always remain as the helpless little things that once were feebly grasping at shadows, his Mother.

The Little Repair Jobs

We give as much attention to the little jobs as the big ones—those things you want fixed right away—pins, rings brooches, etc., that need a little mending or soldering.

This is part of the service we try to give our customers, because we believe if we take care of the little jobs the big ones will come to us too.

WOMEN WHO FACINATE.

The art of fascination and attractiveness in women is founded on good health. Women who drag through long hours, days, weeks and sometimes months of suffering with headaches, backache, and dragging-down pains soon wear the tell-tale expression of woe and misery. If every such woman would only turn to that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, to alleviate such ailments it would surely prove the greatest aid to health and consequent beauty that she has ever known.—Adv.
